

THE PACIFIC COAST.

CALIFORNIA.

The Province, Yesterday.—A day delayed their services to the event, but several public acts attended, drawing from it lessons of general interest. The service was simple, but various places of worship were numerous, but churches were decked with tokens of grief.

REBELLION.

BAY FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—William C. Galt, but, was run over and killed by a train at 10 A.M. in the early part of this morning. George W. Burgess was a victim of the accident, and released on his 14th birthday.

Aerial Shooting.

Maurice Murphy, a thief, our old friend, or in the abominable language of the rebels, a "papist," and died on the 26th instant.

Grand Old Greenbackers.

The director of the grandsons of the day and son and family Doherty, who had a committee of 100 to celebrate their 50th anniversary, joined in the services.

Gothic Monument.

A movement has been started by citizens to erect a monument to the dead.

At Golden Gate Park, the memorial service postponed to Tuesday by the board of directors.

San Francisco Services Key Note.

Six Pacific Coast cities, San Francisco, the first city for the Grand march, opened a 50th anniversary subscription bank, 1 cent open.

ARIZONA.

Apache becoming tired of War.

TUCSON, Sept. 25.—The Citizen writes the following from San Carlos:—A large number of Indians have been captured, and are apparently unarmed, except the scouts. The fight is progressing quietly. Sanchez, the leader, has been captured, and is now in the hands of the rebels. He is reported to be a traitor, and attempting to get into the ranks of rebels. He is still attempting to get into the ranks of rebels.
